Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nervine. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeons' knife, would, it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ENGLAND AND THE ASIATICS.

England is experiencing what might well be called an almost startling awakening to the grave problems caused by the immigration of Asiatics to her white colonies. The principal political topic for a week past has been the situation in the Transvaal, where several thousand Indians and Chinese were given the alternative of submitting to what they consider a degrading system of registration, or of being imprisoned and expelled. The reports of further racial rioting at Vancouver come at a particularly inopportune time on account of the negotiations under way between Canada and Japan, and they are annoying to the British government. Officials have hoped that Japan's willingness to restrict her emigration would soften the anti-Japanese prejudices on the Pacific coast. The latest outbreak in Canada may excite popular feeling in Japan and impede the efforts of the Japanese Government to conclude friendly arrangements with America and Canada. If anything is needed to impress upon England the seriousness of the race question it was another outbreak in Canada coming on top of the Transvaal crisis. It is recognized that the question is more serious for Great Britain that for America, because the Indians are British subjects and the Japanese are Great Britain's allies.

The Transvaal has temporarily refrained from taking measures against those Indians who have refused to register, other than to decline to renew the traders' licenses, all of which expired December 31. It is proposed to execute the law in a few days. Two thousand Indians from all parts of the Transvaal met recently in Johannesburg and voted to refuse to submit to the law. Prominent Indians in England are writing to the newspapers to complain that their compatriots in the white colonies are worse off than the Japanese, who have the diplomatic protection of their government. They predict a weakening of the loyalty of the Indian Empire.

Three city firems —Frost, Anderson and MacDonald—were set upon by a mob of armed Japanese Wednesday two blocks from a police station and in the center of the Japanese district of Vancouver, B. C. The men were in uniform, and the attack of the Japanese is all the more serious for that reason. By accident Frost fell against the window of a Japanese store and smashed the plate glass. The Japanese proprietor rushed out and many of his countrymen came to join the fight. The firemen were overpowered when the flesh of their faces had been torn into ribbons by the razor-like knives which the Orientals carried. Frost was mortally hurt; his neck was cut and laid open for four inches and for a depth of two inches alongside the jugular vein. The other two firemen were cut about the arms and breasts, but were still fighting over the body of Frost when a squad of police arrived, Four Japanese were arrested and the three firemen were taken to a hospital. The Japanese fought like demons, and the knives they carried were a foot long.

Some of the Paris newspapers, notably the Matin, which have been giving considerable prominece to the American-Japanese war scare, have taken the cabled reports of Japan's refusal to accept the American conditions in the matter of immigration, together with the decision of the Navy Department to keep the torpedo-boat flotilla and the battleships together for the remainder of the cruise to the Pacific, and made of them a subject for fresh alarm. The Matin regards the coincidence of these two facts as highly significant, and expresses the opinion that Japan intends to press for a diplomatic settlement of the question before the fleet reaches the west coast. This paper asserts also that the present situation is almost analogous to that which existed before the Russo-Japanese war.

Secretary Root has received from Ambassador O'Brien, at Tokio, a transcript of the reply of the Japanese government to the memorandum submitted by him some time ago in relation to the regulation of Japanese immigration into America. The reply is very long, discussing Mr. O'Brien's proposition in the greatest detail. So far Secretary Root has not had an opportunity to carefully consider the reply, but it is stated that in the opinion of the State Department it exhibits a disposition on the part of the Japanese government to meet the desires of America in a satisfactory manner. Ambassador O'Brien coincides in this view of the Japanese response.

McCUE'S BODY EXHUMED.

Another chapter in the McCue story has come to light. The scene was the family burying ground of the McCues on the farm, near Brooksville, in the western end of Albemarle county, and the time a late hour on Christmas Eve. A farmer, seeing lights moving about, went to the graveyard and found an undertaker and his men exhuming the body of J. Samuel McCue, who was executed in February, 1905, for the murder of his wife. It was found that the top of the coffin had been crushed in and the face of the dead man exposed to view under the dim light of the lanterns. The features were recognizable, it is said, although the face had turned very dark. The coffin was placed in a vehicle and the party left, going in the direction of Charlottesville. The old McCue home is now occupied by Harry, the youngest of the McCue brothers. It is reported that negroes will not work on the farm because of the burial there of J. Samuel McCue. It is conjectured that the reported impossibility of procuring help is the motive for the removal, and the desire to escape notoriety the reason for taking the body away in the night.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured.

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Wise Counsel From the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. F. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured, so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at all drug stores. Price 50c.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THE temperance wave seems to be gradually spreading over the country. Twenty-five thousand of the employes of the Northwestern Railroad have signed a pledge to abstain from the use of intoxicating drinks. As a matter of business prudence the management of the railroad adopted a policy of discrimination favoring sobriety on the part of employes. As a matter of self-protection the employes made a mutual compact of abstenation. A cotemporary very sensibly says that this is the kind of prohibition that prohibits. When every man is his own prohibitionist things are as they ought to be. Snapshot photographs of railroad employes, caught in the act of drinking liquor, in saloons, have created consternation among hundreds of employes of the Louisville and Nashville and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroads. The first sequel to this crusade against the liquor habit, which has been inaugurated by Chesapeake and Ohio officials, has been the suspension of a number of trainmen and engineers.

GOV. JOHNSON, of Minnesota, who is coming prominently before the people as a probable presidential candidate, was asked yesterday, "What must the democratic party do to win?" The governor, a democrat, who has twice been elected governor of a republican stronghold and who has achieved a notable record as an executive, in answer propounded three elements as necessary to democratic victory next fall: Tariff revision as the paramount issue of the campaign; careful selection of candidates and the upholding of States' rights. In tariff reform he declares the party has an issue that has twice carried it to victory in in the past 50 years, and will do so again. He views it as the proper remedy for the ills of trusts and monopolies from which the country is suffering. Gov. Johnson has about "sized up" the situation and has sensibly drawn his conclusions from his knowledge of the past.

AFTER SOME months' preparation Representative Hobson, of Alabama, has formulated his idea of an official government newspaper, which he considers valuable and necessary, and at the reconveying of Congress, Monday, he will introduce a bill providing that such publication be started, Mr. Hobson feels, first of all, that every department of the government is doing much work which would interest and aid the people of the country, and he believes, too, that there is much documentary waste. In his opinion, which he formed in his district, the great body of the people are ignorant of what is being accomplished in Washington because they have no way of following the governmental workings. Mr. Hobson will soon find out that he is as much off on his ideas of an official government newspaper as he was about blocking harbors.

THE old and decrepit may now take on new hope. Dr. J. C. Siebel announced in Chicago yesterday before the American Association for the Advancement of Science that he has discovered a method of generating energy within the human body. He asserted that electricity stored in the human body can be released and made to do work. This work, he said, is the prolongation of life through the additional vitality supplied to the human body working as its own electrical generator. Dr. Siebel announced that nutritive elements such as alcohol, sugar and fats during their consumption by the human body act as generators of electricity in the miniature batteries that comprise the muscular structure of the human frame.

IN the Michigan constitutional convention on Wednesday a cigarette discussion that in the beginning gave the appearance of having been entered into jokingly, passed quickly into the serious stage and resulted in the adoption of a proposal prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in that State. The proposition was carried in committee of the whole and later was adopted 56 to 17, in formal session. It would be a good thing if the manufacture and sale of cigarettes were stopped in every State in the Union. It is a pernicious and harmful habit and has wrecked the lives of thousands for it is known that all kinds of drugs, are used in the make-up of the cigarettes. If men will smoke, they should smoke cigars and pipes.

THE end of the racing game in New York is said to be in sight. Governor Hughes, in his annual message, recommends that it be made a felony to gamble inside a race track as well as on the outside, and that offenders be punished by imprisonment with no alternative of fines. It is believed that the legislature will kill racing before next summer.

Mrs. Sally Arnold, widow of John Arnold, died Wednesday at her home, near Lucketts, aged seventy years. Mrs. Arnold was a Miss Williams, of a well-known family of Loudoun, and is survived by four children.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., January 3.

The passing of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad into the hands of receivers can not fail to have its effect, so the railroads believe, upon the judgment of the members of the Supreme Court of the United States, who are even now considering the alleged confiscatory nature of recent railroad legislation in various States. According to the railroad's lawyers, the troubles of the Seaboard are traceable directly to what they term the unfriendly and unreasonable attitude of southern State legislatures. So far, formal attacks have been made in the highest court of the land against the laws of Minnesota, North Carolina and Nebraska. In a few days will be filed a suit to test the Virginia law. Practically the same points are involved in all the cases. The Minnesota case arose over the attempt to free the State's attorney general, Edward T. Young, by habeas corpus proceedings, from his sentence for contempt of the federal court, in that he did not obey a temporary injunction, which sought to restrain him from enforcing the new freight rates, fixed by a statute. He began suit in a State court to enforce the law and the federal judge held him to be in contempt, fining him $500. The North Carolina case under consideration presents a different aspect, in that an agent of the Southern Railway was arrested for violating the statute which fixed the maximum passenger rate, said to be confiscatory. As the federal court had already issued an injunction against the State officials, who arrested the agent to restrain them temporarily from enforcing the law, the agent, James Wood, was released. From this an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court. As in the Minnesota case, much is said about the jurisdiction of the federal courts. In Nebraska, the State officials did not wait for the railroad officials to get the first move, but entered suit in the Supreme Court of the State for a writ to compel the railroads to obey the law, fixing maximum freight and passenger rates. But a federal judge took the case away from the State court, and now the Nebraska officials are asking the Supreme Court of the United States to make the federal judges hand it back. In the Virginia case, the federal court, Judge Pritchard, who sat in the North Carolina case, held that the two cent passenger rate order was confiscatory, and issued a permanent injunction against its enforcement. This, the State will contest before the Supreme Court.

Rear Admiral Albert Ross was placed on the retired list of the navy today for age, his retirement resulting in the promotion of Capt. William Swift. Admiral Ross will continue temporarily on duty as commandant of the Naval Training Station for the Great Lakes at Chicago, and Admiral Swift will continue as commandant of the Boston navy yard.

Secretary Taft is expected to declare himself on nearly all the important questions of the day within the next few weeks. He has made engagements to speak at four different places: January 10, at Cooper Union, New York; January 14, before the Ohio Society, of Philadelphia; January 21, before the Tippacanoe Club, of Cleveland, and on February 12 before the Lincoln Club, of Grand Rapids, Mich. In visiting New York and Pennsylvania, he will invade the territory of Governor Hughes and Senator Knox, other prominent presidential aspirants. January 9, the date of his appearance in Cleveland, is the anniversary of the late President McKinley's birth.

President Roosevelt shook hands today with Benjamin Manster, a young man who is walking from New York to San Francisco in 80 days. "I've done a good deal of walking in my day," said the President, "but I never walked from the Atlantic to the Pacific, or across the desert. I hope you succeed."

Fire in a store room on the supply ship Arethusa, is the latest accident to the Atlantic fleet to be reported to the Navy Department. The fire occurred on January 2, while the vessel was at Para, in advance of the battle fleet, and will delay her three days. The damages were slight.

December was the record breaking month for excavation on the Panama canal, according to the dispatches received from the chief engineer by the Washington office of the commission today. The total excavation for the month was 2,200,539 cubic yards, compared with 1,838,486 in November and 1,665,729 in October.

Fraud orders were issued today by the Postoffice Department against the Homeseekers Co-operative Colinization Company, of Hot Springs, Ark., a corporation to make drawings on lands for a new town; Millison, in Texas, and against the Rock Island and Pacific Company, of St. Louis, operating a similar scheme at Greenland, Ark.

Gen. John G. Meem died at the Stratford Hotel yesterday and his remains were taken to Lynchburg for interment this morning. Gen. Meem, who was a member of Stonewall Jackson's staff during the civil war, and one of the foremost civil engineers in the country, had been ill for some time. He formerly lived in Shenandoah county, Va.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION CREDITORS.

All parties in the Jamestown Exposition receivership litigation were yesterday summoned to answer a motion before United States District Judge Waddill in Norfolk, January 18, for the filing of an intervening petition by the William H. Horstmann Company, of Philadelphia, which seeks to come in and represent itself and other creditors of the Jamestown Exposition Company holding second mortgage bonds of the company, in lieu of representation by T. J. Wool and O. D. Batchelder, trustees under said mortgage, who are declared to be ineligible because they are directors of and counsel for the Jamestown Exposition Company. The Horstmann Company, which furnished flags and decorations for the exposition and supplied the uniforms of the Powhatan Guards there, instead of securing judgment upon its claims of $9,000 against the Exposition Company, took second mortgage bonds, which it now holds.

To Go to Prison.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 3.—Greene and Gaynor at last must accept their fate and go to a federal prison. District Attorney Marion Erwin today notified counsel for the men that on next Tuesday they will be removed to the federal prison at Atlanta. Counsel for the prisoners say exery possible means of saving them has been exhausted.

News of the Day.

A Sunday school conference to arrange for uniform lessons was begun in Boston yesterday with 155,000 schools represented.

Twelve persons were injured, several probably fatal when a street car on a suburban line turned turtle today in Memphis, Tenn.

Captain Winslow is said to have called the attention of Secretary Metcalf to the fact that Surgeon General Rixey violated the naval regulations in criticising Admiral Brownson.

Shareholders im the Republic Savings and Loan Association, of New York, which suspended payment and went into the hands of receivers in May, 1900, will receive 6 cents on the dollar.

District Attorney Jerome announced today that the same line of procedure in the Thaw case will hold as prevailed at the last trial. He will be assisted by Assistant District Attorney Garvin.

The Alabama 9 o'clock closing law for cities of over 15,000 will be given a test hearing in the courts and carried to the State Supreme Court. The law went into effect Wednesday night at midnight, but only one-third of the saloon-keepers observed it.

John D. Rockefeller's annual New Year's gift to the University of Chicago arrived yesterday, one day late, in the shape of a donation amounting to $2,191,000. Mr. Rockefeller's gifts to the university which he founded now total $23,809,061.98.

The Countess of Yarmouth, Harry Thaw's sister, is said on apparently unquestionable authority in London to be preparing suit to nullify her marriage. It is understood the case will be heard in Camera at the coming session of the divorce court.

Receivership proceedings involving the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railway Company and allied corporations capitalized at $30,000,000 was vacated today in Judge Tuthill's court. A compromise between creditors and the railroad officials has been reached.

Negotiations for the conclusion of a definite commercial agreement between France and the United States are proceeding so satisfactorily that the French government has extended the decree permitting Porto Rican coffee to enter France upon payment of the minimum rate of duty until February 1.

Firing a pistol ball into his brain, Mr. William Clem Brooke, member of a prominent Anne Arundel county, Md., family, killed himself yesterday afternoon in the Hotel Lombard, in Baltimore. For some time Mr. Brooke had been despondent. His condition, it was said, was due to the fact that his youngest son, Norman Hill Brooke, 12 years old, is suffering from epilepsy.

Surrounded by the paintings which he loved, but which he knew were to be soon nothing but memories because of his fast failing eyesight, Marquise Cossitt Gaspar, a wealthy retired tea merchant, and octogenarian, shot himself yesterday in the sitting-room of his house in New York, dying instantly. He was found some time later by his wife, who thought him asleep at first.

Declaring the prohibition laws as far as 1908 is concerned, unconstitutional, the probate judge of Cullman county, Ala., has issued nine saloon licenses and the liquor establishments will be opened. The mayor is said to be preparing to issue city licenses for saloons in the city of Cullman. There is no excitement beyond the fact that the prohibitionists have called on the governor to enforce the prohibition laws.

Probably the first lynching of 1908 occurred at Brook Haven, Miss., yesterday, when a mob in broad daylight took a negro away from police officers and shot him. The negro, whose name was not known either to the police or mob, was accused of killing a policeman at Oakvale, Miss., Tuesday night. The negro had been arrested as a suspicious person because he came to Brook Haven to be treated for a gunshot wound. The mob threw a lasso over his neck as the officers were taking him to jail. Owing to the quick gathering of a crowd an effort to hang him was abandoned. A negro who saw the body said it was that that of Coot Autman, accused of killing a policeman in that vicinity December 10.

A MASONIC INCIDENT.

"I read of the death of Col. W. E. Cutshaw, of Richmond, with deep regret," said an old citizen who knew the deceased well some years ago. "He was a high class engineer and no braver man served in the Confederate army than he. He lost a leg in battle, but got along without difficulty on a cork limb.

"Colonel Cutshaw was the only one-legged man in the United States, or any other country, so far as I am informed, who was ever initiated into the mysteries of Freemasonry. It was sometime in the eighties. I was living in Richmond then and was a member of the fraternity. I was present in the lodge—No. 207—when Colonel Cutshaw was made an entered apprentice. I was also present a month later when he was passed to the degree of fellow craft. In due course of time he was raised to the degree of master Mason and soon afterward he received the Scottish Rite degrees up to and including the thirty-second.

"This act of making a one-legged man a Mason became a celebrated case. Grandmasters of Virginia, one after another, had been sounded with regard to Colonel Cutshaw's petition. Each was asked to grant a special dispensation, but each declined.

Every grandmaster was personally acquainted with Cutshaw and esteemed him highly: but, they were afraid to set aside an ancient landmark. There was no precedent and neither of the grandmasters was willing to set one in a case like this. Finally a new lodge was organized in Richmond. Every charter member had been pledged on the quiet to vote for Colonel Cutshaw and the brother selected to be the first worshipfulmaster was pledged to confer the degrees. Cutshaw was the first candidate to be initiated. Conservative members of sister lodges thought the grandmaster would revoke the charter of lodge No. 207 and punish all those who voted for a one-leged candidate and especially those officers who participated in Cutshaw,s initiation: but the most worshipful did nothing of the kind. Had the candidate been a less popular man than Colonel Cutshaw, there would have been trouble. As it was this Masonic sensation soon blew over. It was an amusing coincidence in the name of No. 207, which was "Lodge of the Strict Observance." "—Birmingham Age Herald.

Virginia News.

After an illness of several days, A. J. Stofer, 85 years old, who was owner and editor of the Culpeper Observer, died yesterday at the home of his son-in-law, E. J. Brand.

At the last meeting of the Culpeper city council, Mayor Bell, who has been Mayor continuously for eight years, resigned that office. Mr. Bell was elected to the legislature last November.

Charles H. Higdon, one of the oldest citizens of Loudoun county, died on Monday night at his home near Woodburn. He was eighty-four years of age, and is survived by his wife and two daughters.

In Staunton yesterday, Mr. Harry St. George Tucker, who has announced his candidacy for the governorship, had his attention called to the fact that his opponents are saying that his failure to make the Jamestown Exposition a success will put him out of the race. "If that is to be one of the issues in the canvass," he said, "I am perfectly willing that it shall be submitted to those who had the opportunity of witnessing the exposition."

Joseph W. Kates, formerly superintendent of the Southern district of the Western Union Company, at Richmond, and later general superintendent of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, with headquarters at Richmond died Wednesday night at Manchester. Mr. Kates was in charge of the office at Manassas, during the battles of Blackburn's Ford and Manassas. He transmitted the famous message from President Jefferson Davis to Gen. Joseph E. Johnston at Winchester, ordering that officer to make a junction with General Beauregard at Manassas.

BONI IN STREET FIGHT.

Count Boni de Castellane, from whom his wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, was recently divorced, and Prince Helie de Sagan, who on several occasions was reported to be engaged to Mme. Gould, had a personal encounter yesterday at the Church of St. Pierre de Chaillot, Paris, while a service to the memory of Lady Stanley Errington, a relative of both men, who died lately in England, was in progress.

Beginning inside the church, where, Count Boni says, the Prince insulted both him and the sacred edifice, the encounter was resumed at the doorway, where Count Boni, followed by his brother, Count Jean de Castellane, overtook the Prince. Count Boni spat in his cousin's face.

Then came the clash of canes, followed by a rough-and-tumble fight on the pavement, which ended in the gutter, where the men were finally separated by a butcher. Count Boni at the moment of intervention was holding down the Prince, while Jean, according to eye witnesses, was administering to him a severe kicking.

When the police arrived the butcher was holding the two principals in the fight, who were covered with mud. The Prince was bleeding profusely from a wound in the right temple, where he had been hit by Count Boni's heavy stick. With the butcher's hand on his collar, Boni was haranguing a crowd which had gathered as to why he had spat in the Prince's face. The police invited the two men to go to the stationhouse where they made "explanations."

Both Count Boni and the Prince gave their own version of the quarrel, each claiming that the other was the aggressor, but the Prince alone lodged a complaint charging the brothers with assault.

A "process verbal" having been written out, according to the French law, the three men signed it and then were released. The case now will go before the public prosecutor, who will decide what, it any, steps shall be taken.

In view of the fact that Prince Helie has elected to pursue the matter in the courts, the idea of a duel seems to be precluded. Besides, Count Boni declared last night that it was doubtful whether he would receive the witnesses of the Prince, even if the latter could find anyone to act in that capacity. Last night Prince Helie was laid up in bed with his head swathed in bandages, while Count Boni spent a part of the evening in visiting the newspaper offices, telling the story of the encounter.

THE SEABOARD AIR LINE.

Appointment of receivers for the Seaboard Air Line Railroad system appears to have brought together the conflicting interests in the ownership and management. John Skelton Williams, of Richmond, by whose genius the system was built up, but who was forced out of control four years ago by Thomas F. Ryan, says he is ready to "put personal grievances aside" and work with the Ryan interests for reorganization. He also points out that he long ago predicted that the methods used by those who ousted him would bring disaster.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

On the 1st of January the Alexandria Gazette commenced its 109th volume. The court records of this county and of Alexandria show that the Gazette was published many years prior to 1800, but the regular files of the paper only run back to that year. Those files record the growth and development of this section for more than a century, and what an interesting volume they make! showing "the very age and body of the times." The Gazette has had a long and honored career, and we wish it increasing prosperity as the years roll by. —[Fairfax Herald.

Uncle Remus's Magazine for January which has been received from its publishers in Atlanta, does credit to its distinguished editor and his able staff. Joel Chandler Harris contributes to the "Nature Faking" controversy by his "Story of a Self-educated Dog," he also tells an "Uncle Remus Story," a story of "Free Joe," and as Mr. Billy Sanders discusses politics in Georgia. "What I know of the Ku Klux Klan" and "Five men Who Made Epochs" are to be noted. The fiction and verse are good, and "A Glance in Passing," "Drama in New York," and the review of new books are of interest.

Today's Telegraphic News.

No Verdict.

Georgetown, Ky., Jan. 3.—After 12 hours of deliberation the jury in whose hands rests the fate of Caleb Powers, accused of complicity in the murder of William Goebel in 1900, seems hopelessly divided. When the jury retired to bed late last night the foreman intimated that an agreement was probable. This morning they are still locked.

Judged Morris has not yet indicated how long he will keep the jury if it does not reach a verdict. Powers appears satisfied, although he had hoped for acquittal.

The commonwealth will bitterly oppose giving Powers bail if there is a disagreement. Unless the majority of the jury favors acquittal it is the general belief that Judge Morris will refuse bail.

At 10:45 the jury filed into the courtroom and, through the foreman, J. L. Price, declared that it could not reach a verdict.

"We are further from a verdict today than we were last night," said Foreman Price, "and I know that it will be impossible." Judge Harris told the jury that the law required that they be kept together as long as there might be a chance for reaching a verdict.

Conditions at Muncie.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 3.—The Union Traction Company announced at 8 o'clock today that cars will be run today and there is reason to believe that if violence follows, troops will be sent immediately. The company endeavored to ascertain from Governor Hanly what his attitude would be in case of violence. "Your franchise provides that you run cars," said the Governor. "If you do not do so, you stand to forfeit you franchise. No more lawlessness at Muncie will be tolerated. That's all I can say."

With this understanding cars will be started on all lines.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 3.—Rioting was resumed on the outskirts of the city when the first car made its appearance on the Industrial line. A crowd of men and boys demolished the car and made the strikebreakers flee. Another car came to pull it into the barn and the mob demolished this also.

Will Push Extradition Proceedings.

London, Jan. 3.—Representatives of the Duke of Portland and Herbert Druce have decided to push the extradition and prosecution of Robert C. Caldwell, the Staten Islander who testified that he managed a mock funeral for Druce's father, Thomas Charles, putting 200 pounds of lead in the coffin. It is urged that several other witnesses who testified positively that they knew Druce and the fifth Duke of Portland to be the same were also plainly guilty of perjury and consultations have already been held with crown officials relative to prosecuting them. George H. Druce, T. C. Druce's first direct descendant, who sought the Portland title and estates, continues to assert the wrong coffin was opened and that he will not drop his case. His lawyers are making no further efforts in his behalf, however, and it is expected the litigation will shortly be thrown out of court.

Trouble With Japanese

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 3. —Many Japanese are being arrested here for carrying arms and examples, it is asserted, will be made of all against whom convictions can be secured for violating the law in this respect. The police, influenced by the bitter anti-oriental feeling, are not invariably discreet in making such arrests, have taken several Japanese in custody against whom they had no cases and in this manner are intensifying the excitement among the islanders as among the white men. Leading Japanese admit that their countrymen are sometimes unnecessarily excitable, but argue that they have been badgered and persecuted until there is much excuse for them. The Japanese section is practically a camp against white men. Its population is about 2,000 and for a Canadian to venture into the district unguarded would be next to suicide.

Work of Night Riders.

Russellville, Ky., Jan. 3.—Night riders, 100 strong, swooped down on Russellville, Logan county, early this morning and after overpowering three policemen and providing against the giving of an alarm, dynamited and burned the two independent tobacco concerns in the city and rode away out the Hopkinsville and Clarksville pikes. It is probable an appeal for troops will be made to Governor Wilson as civil authorities seem helpless to prevent or punish raids by the riders. The loss by the attack will reach $50,000.

Deed of Desperate Negro.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 3.—Carol McDougall, a desperate negro, held up occupants of a store here today at the point of a revolver. He lined up the customers and clerks and then robbed the cash drawer. He kept his victims "covered" as he left, and on going out closed and locked the door which was the only exit. The prisoners forced their way out and procured blood hounds. Great crowds joined in the man hunt and the negro was run down and captured in a swamp after a spectacular chase.

Suit for Divorce.

Baltimore, Jan. 3 —George F. Brownson-Howard, of this city, magazine writer and war correspondent, was sued for an absolute divorce today by Mrs. Howard, who alleged adultery on the part of her husband. They were married March 1, 1907, and separated in London in May last.

Death of Dr. Stafford.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Rev. Dr. D. J. Stafford, pastor of St. Patricks Catholic Church of this city, and widely known as a lecturer, died at Providence Hospital this afternoon, as the result of an operation for cirrhosis of the liver. Extreme unction, the last rites of the Catholic faith, was administered to Rev. Dr. J. Stafford, by Father McGuigan at Providence Hospital last night. Dr. Stafford underwent a serious operation on Monday last, and until 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon his condition had been most favorable. He began to fail at this hour, and at 5:30 o'clock Father McGuigan was hurriedly summoned from St. Patrick's rectory, Mrs. Albert C. Whitton and Miss Margaret Stafford, sisters of the patient, were also sent for. Dr. Vaughan, who performed the operation, pronounced the priest in a dangerous condition, and Father McGuigan administered extreme unction.

Execution of Boy Murderer.

Louisville, Ky. Jan. 3 .—Clarence Sturgeon, the boy murderer of three men paid the extreme penalty here today in an execution marred by the gallows trap door refusing to spring and a heart-breaking delay while Sheriff Charles J. Scholl and most of his party came down from the gibbett and wrestled with the underworkings of the mechanism. During the delay of several minutes that ensued while the defect in the trigger was remedied Sturgeon stood unsupported and the fingers holding a rosary did not flinch. The trap was finally sprung and death ensued 17 minutes later. The neck was not broken. The murders were the outcome of trouble over a woman, who later committed suicide.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm releases the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm as a remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely's Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Samuel Reeves, colored, about sixty years of age, was struck and fatally injured early last night opposite the Four Mile Run power-house, by a northbound train over the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway. Reeves was brought to this city and conveyed to the Alexandria Hospital, but when he reached that institution life was extinct, he having died aboard the car. He had sustained a fracture of the skull and his right leg was cut off below the knee. The remains were removed to Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment.

The unfortunate man was a native of Maryland, and at the time of his death was employed in the family of Mr. George E. Calvert, who resides at Four Mile Run, opposite the power-house. He had a few minutes before the accident left the Calvert homestead with a lantern in his hand to meet Mrs. Calvert, who was expected to return at that time from Alexandria. He proceeded to the station, opposite the power house, but subsequently crossed to the track used by north bound trains, when he was struck with the result stated above.

The train was in charge of Conductor H. V. Kelley and Motorman Stephen B. Sorrell. Reeves was seen by Motorman Sorrell, who blew the whistle and applied the airbrakes, but before the train could be stopped Reeves was struck and thrown to one side.

Dr. Moore, the Coroner, held an inquest over the remains at 10 o'clock this morning at Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment. The jury was composed of Messrs. J. H. Trimyer (foreman), J. G. Cockey, W. B. Green, W. W. Ballenger, Frank C. Creighton and C. B. Marshall.

The evidence showed that Reeves had left the station on the west side of the track and was on the track on the east used by north bound trains when he was struck and thrown against the fence which surrounds the power house and car sheds; that the motorman blew warning whistles and used every means to bring the train to a stop; that it ran only three car lengths after it had struck the man, and that he was picked up as soon as possible and brought to this city on a special train.

The jury subsequently returned the following verdict.

"We, the jury, find that Samuel Reeves came to his death by having been struck by a north bound train on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway near Four Mile Run on Thursday, January, 2, 1908, at 5:25 p. m., and that his death was not due to negligence on the part of the employees of the railway company."

SINKING OF A SCHOONER.

A collision occurred Saturday night southwest of Barnegat Lighthouse between the schooners Elizabeth Palmer and the Estelle Phinney. The latter was sunk, and the wife of her donkey engineers lost her life. The saving of the other persons on board the lost vessel was attended with much peril to the rescuers. The Elizabeth Palmer was towed to Baltimore today by the tugboat Imperial. The Estelle Phinney, Captain Swan, was bound from Lamberts Point to Boston with a cargo of coal. On account of her heavy cargo and the evident fact that she was hit bows-on by the Elizabeth Palmer, the Estelle Phinney must have gone down like a shot, giving little time to save her crew, and, in the confusion, it is believed, the woman was lost. The Estelle Phinney was of 922 gross tons. She was built in 1891 in New London, Conn., and hailed from New Haven, Conn. The ill-fated schooner last summer brought a load of ice to the Mutual Ice Company of this city.

SCHOOL BOARD.

At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night Mr. W. B. Smoot presided in the absence of the chairman.

Mr. Yates reported that some minor repairs had been made at Seaton and Washington buildings and some bills for repairs were ordered to be paid.

The Superintendent reported that the four trustees elected by the City Council in November last had all qualified according to law. He also reported that the schools had all reopened that morning after the holiday recess with all the teachers present except one, who was sick, but that a substitute had taken her place.

After a short session the board adjourned.

Among the colored teachers who attended the Manassas Industrial Institute held December 27th and 28th were J. F. Parker, principal, and R. D. Lyles, of Snowden school, this city.

TO EXTEND THE ROAD

It is understood Maj. Charles Hines, receiver of the Washington Arlington and Falls Church railway, has secured right of way for the extension of a branch of that road from Vienna to Herndon, deeds having been signed by Williams and Urich for a right of way through their farms to a point on the Floris road. It is stated that these deeds complete the line to and through Herndon, put it is proposed to extend the branch line to Chantilly, on the Little River pike, right of way from Herndon to that point being assured.

PREPARING FOR EXECUTION.

Mr. James. T. Patterson went to the Alexandria county court house this afternoon with his wagons for the purpose of bringing the scaffold recently erected there to this city. The gibbet was intended for Wright, the colored man convicted of assaulting Miss Mabel Risley, but his sentence was commuted. It will be placed in position in the jail yard in this city, and should the governor fail to interfere, it will be used in the execution of George Midgets, colored, on the 17th instant.

LEAP YEAR DANCE.

One of the most enjoyable dances imaginable was held at McBurney's Hall on New Year's night, given by a coterie of young Jewish ladies from this city and Washington. Those present included: Miss Bertye Gutman, of Baltimore; Miss Herzog, of Cincinnati, O.; Misses Jennye Sanger, Irma Stern, Belle Hirsh, Irene Hirsh, Irene Hollander, Blanche Stern, Camille Feltheimer, Mrs. Morris Blumenfeld and Miss Cohenshus, of Washington; Misses Rebecca Wollberg, Carrye Blondheim, Tony Wollberg, Jennye Blondheim and Amelia Wollberg, of this city; Mr. Metzger, of New York; Mr. Bernstein, of Kentucky; Messrs. Wm. Michaelis, Leon Straus, Leo Finklestein, Morris Sinsheimer, Leo Liebschutz, Leon Greenbaum, Harry Sanger, Morris Sondheim, Leon Pretzfelder, Morris Blumenfeld and Mr. Loeb, of Washington; Messrs. Sidney Wollberg, Jerome Kaufmann, Harry Dachslager and Charles Blondheim, all of this city. Immediately after the ball an agreeable surprise was furnished by the Messrs. Rammel Bros., of this city, in the shape of a beautiful and elaborate supper, served in their banquet hall on north Royal street. It was a matter of satisfaction for the Alexandrians present to hear the lavish words of praise heaped upon the collation by the Washingtonians attending. At the conclusion of the festivities the Washington party returned on a special car.

DEATH OF MR. ALLISON NAILOR

Allison Nailor, jr., one of the oldest and best known citizens of Washington and a Mason of national reputation, died at his home in that city, yesterday evening after a short illness with grip. Allison Nailor, jr., was born in Washington, May 21, 1836, and the greater part of his life was spent in that city. He was Thirty-third Degree Mason, President of the Oldest Inhabitants Association, and a member of many other bodies, a horseman, traveler and friend of President Diaz.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Bryant and Arthur Grisby, both colored, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each,

Lawrence Baker, colored, charged with discharging a gun within the city's limits, was fined $5.

John Thomas, colored, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. James D. Gatewood and the Misses Gatewood gave a beautiful tea yesterday afternoon from 5 until 7 o'clock at their home in Washington. Those assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. Thomas Street, Mrs. Thomas Washington, Mrs. Edward Parker, Miss Gheen, Miss Boyd, Miss Bryan, Miss Hitchcock, Miss Page, Miss Abbot and Miss Washington. A number of Alexandrians were present.

CHANGE OF GAUGERS.

Mr. C. E. Gentry, the United States storekeeper and gauger at the Savage distillery at Kernstown, Frederick county, has been transferred to the Mahoneyville distillery near this city, the largest in the district. Mr. C. L. Pritchard who has been stationed at the Mahoneyville distillery has been transferred to the Bumgardner distillery at Staunton.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late James H. McIntosh, who died Wednesday afternoon, took place from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment this afternoon. Rev. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Church officiated, and the interment was made in Bethel cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Phillips, Bushrod Phillips, Frank Latham, and Richard Latham.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY

There will be held tonight at 7:30 in the lecture room of the church, a regular monthly business meeting and social of the M. P. Church Christian Endeavor Society. At the meeting the newly elected officers of the society will be installed. The members and friends of the church are most cordialy invited.

CHESS TOURNAMENT.

Messrs. R. O. Allen, N. H. Willis and Dr. A. D. Thomson, members of the Valley Chess Club, attended the semi-annual tournament at the residence of Mr. John S. Blackburn this week. Dr. Thomson beat the deferred game of August, thereby winning the cup. Mr. Blackburn won in the Christmas tournament.

INSTALLATION.

There was an interesting meeting last night of Alexandria Council, No. 33, Junior Order United Americans, when the newly elected officers by the council were installed by the deputy State councilor. A smoker and a literary entertainment followed.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

A delegation of Potomac Lodge, No. 28, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, went to Falls Church last night, where the Alexandria degree team conferred the degrees of the order upon nineteen candidates.

FRIDAY EVENING JAN. 3. 1908.

Mirth of a Murderer.

With the help of a little tool, not unlike a tin opener, our burglar cut two long slits—one perpendicular, the other horizontal—in the iron shop shutter. Then he wrenched the flap toward him, bending it with his powerful hands as one twists open the lid of a sardine tin. Another minute and he was inside.

Quietly and methodically he thrust precious stones and rings into his little bag, choosing those which besides being small were of great value. The bag was all but full when the jeweler himself appeared at the back of the shop. He carried a candle in one hand and a revolver in the other.

The burglar bowed very politely and said:

"I did not care to pass by an old friend's house without stopping to bid him good day."

The unsuspecting jeweler allowed himself to be shaken by the hand, when, with a sudden thrust, the burglar stabbed him to the heart.

The bag was rapidly filled to almost bursting point, and before leaving the premises the burglar wrote a few words on a sheet of paper, which he pasted on the outside of the shop:

"Closed on account of death in the family."—London Scraps.

Professional Etiquette.

An eminent physician had a valuable cow, which became sick and seemed likely to die. He asked an Irish servant who lived with him if he knew anybody who followed cow doctoring. The doctor's groom said, "There's Jemmy Lafferty, who can cure any cow in the world." "Well, then," replied the doctor, "go for Lafferty." The cow doctor accordingly came and treated the brute for four or five days, and on the lapse of due time he waited on Dr. Lewis and pronounced her cured.

The doctor, greatly delighted, put his hand on his pocketbook. "Well, Lafferty, what do I owe you?" "Owe me!" replied Jemmy, drawing himself up with dignity. "Nothing, sir. We doctors niver take money of one another."

"My first impulse," said the doctor while telling the story, "was to throw his fee after him, but on second thought the whole affair seemed so ridiculous that I bowed him my acknowledgments with as much gravity as I could assume." — London Telegraph.

Loaded Ivory.

An ivory dealer uttered a cry of rage.

"Done again!" he said. "Done out of $50!"

And he laid aside one of the tusks from the great heap that he had been examining.

"It is ballasted with lead," he said. "That is a common Kongo trick. The native when he gets a good big tusk of eighty pounds or so melts up ten or fifteen pounds of lead and pours it down into the tusk's hollow. He fills it, so to speak, as a dentist fills a tooth.

"We dealers know the dodge, and every tusk is gone over carefully for a lead filling. My new trader, though, is rather careless, and this is the second filled tusk that has been worked off on him in the last quarter."

The dealer's frown vanished, and he smiled.

"Of course the trader and not I will have to stand the loss," he said.—Minneapolis Journal.

Old Age Is Selfish.

A lady residing in a quiet village in Suffolk used to take an interest in a very aged couple who were spinning out the last thread of life in "Darby and Joan" fashion, seated on either side of their fireplace. She often paid them a visit to cheer them up. The old man had been ailing, and at last a day came when the visitor found only one chair occupied. Darby was not in his usual place.

"Where is your husband?"

"Well, mum, he be gone at last."

"Oh, I'm so sorry! That is very sad for you," said the lady, seeking to find words of consolation.

"Yes, mum, it be sad," replied the old woman, "but, then, you see, he were fearfully in the way of the oven."—Pearson's Weekly.

Deadly East Indian Duels.

There are a good deal of savagery and stoical disregard of death left in the east yet despite the advance of civilization, and this extends to the so called sports of the people. Thus among the natives of Baroda there obtains still a kind of gladiatorial display in the shape of a fearful fist fight wherein the contestants wear a very formidable cestus of steel studded with murderous spikes. The duelists—usually big, brawny, athletic men who have been infuriated for the occasion with copious drafts of opium in which hemp is infused—enter the arena singing and set to with deliberate intent to kill, one or both invariably succumbing.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism.

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this just try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by W. T. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Wonderfully Good Sight.

The Duchess of X. once went to Greenwich to see the marvels of the observatory. It was a lovely night, and for the fair duchess' benefit the great telescope was duly leveled at the dazzling field of stars.

"What is that star?" she said, pointing to a very bright one.

"Is it very far off?" asked her grace.

"About six or seven light years, your grace."

"What is a light year?"

"Merely an expression which one uses to convey an idea of the distance which light travels in a year. Roughly speaking, light travels at the rate of 190,000 miles in a second, and there are about 31,000,536 seconds in a year. In one year, therefore, light travels above 5,991,840,000,000 miles. The expression 'light year' includes these figures."

"And is that star all those millions of miles away?"

"Yes, your grace, as nearly as we can calculate."

"Then all I can say," remarked the duchess, "is that you must have wonderfully good eyes to make out that star's name at that distance, even with this big telescope. It's really most marvelous."—London Tit-Bits.

Slaughtered the Anthem.

"When I went west first," said a Unitarian minister, "I was in a small town called L., and in the choir of my church the village blacksmith did noble work as baritone. He had a voice that could shake mountains, and whatever it lacked in any other feature it made up in volume. He couldn't read music any more than he could English, but he learned a tune very readily.

"One Sunday we were to be favored with a new anthem because it was a special occasion, and the baritone had one portion all to himself. Unfortunately he had missed many of the practices.

"The anthem went along excellently until it came to a beautiful part which reads, 'And, dying, bids us all aspire.'

"Here the rest of the singers stopped short in that quick, sudden way that choirs have, and in the ensuing stillness sounded the ponderous tones of the blacksmith:

"'And dying brides are filled with fire.'"—Boston Herald.

WOOD AND COAL.

An Alarming State of Affairs is sure to come if you persist in buying poor coal—fire goes out, money goes out, house gets cold and you have to run for coal at all sorts of inopportune times, and wear out the coal hod bringing it in, and without getting warm. If you buy the Lehigh Coal we sell you'll have a fire that lasts and gives the heat you need.
